I, MISHKA FERGUSON, declare:

1. I am employed as the Vice President of Securities by Gilardi & Co. LLC (“Gilardi”), located at 3301 Kerner Blvd., San Rafael, California. Pursuant to its June 24, 2016 Order Preliminarily Approving Settlement and Providing for Notice (the “Order”), the Court appointed Gilardi to supervise and administer the notice procedure.

2. I submit this declaration to provide the Court and the parties to the above-captioned litigation (the “Action”) with information regarding: (i) mailing of the Notice of Proposed Settlement of Class Action (the “Settlement Notice”), (ii) posting of the document and others on the website dedicated to the Action, (iii) publication of the Summary Notice, and (iv) objections received to date. A true and correct copy of the Settlement Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit A. The Settlement Notice is in the form approved by the Court. This declaration also provides information regarding certain calculations Gilardi performed with respect to the damages in this case.

3. I am over 21 years of age and am not a party to this Action. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein and, if called as a witness, could and would testify competently thereto.

MAILING OF THE SETTLEMENT NOTICE

4. The Order required Gilardi to mail a copy of the Settlement Notice to all Class Members who were previously identified pursuant to the mailing of the Notice of Verdict in Favor of the Plaintiff Class, dated January 11, 2011. Gilardi compiled a mailing list comprised of: (a) all names and addresses identified in connection with the mailing of the Notice of Pendency and Proposed Partial Settlement of Class Action dated January 31, 2006, (b) all additional names and addresses identified in connection with the mailing of the Notice of Verdict in Favor of the Plaintiff Class, dated January 11, 2011, (c) all names and addresses identified in connection with Proofs of Claim received by Gilardi in 2011, resulting in a usable mailing list of 593,116 unique names and addresses. Due to the length of time which has elapsed since prior mailings and submission of Proofs of Claim, the list was reviewed against the national change of address database maintained by the United States Postal Service to identify current address information where possible prior to mailing. Gilardi had the unique name and address data printed on to the Settlement Notices, posted the Settlement Notices for First-Class Mail prepaid, and delivered 593,116 Settlement Notices on July 8, 2016, to the United States Post Office.

5. In addition, on July 8, 2016, as part of its normal mailing procedures, Gilardi also mailed, by First-Class Mail, Settlement Notices and cover letters to 251 brokerages, custodial banks, and other institutions (“Nominal Holders”) that hold securities in “street name” as nominees for the benefit of their customers who are the beneficial owners of the securities. The Nominal Holders also include a group of filers/institutions who have requested notification of every securities case. These Nominal Holders are included in a proprietary database created and maintained by Gilardi. In Gilardi’s experience, the institutions included in the list of 251 Nominal Holders represent a significant majority of the beneficial holders of securities. The cover letter accompanying the Settlement Notices advised the Nominal Holders of the proposed settlement and requested their cooperation in forwarding the Settlement Notices to potential Class Members. In the over 25 years that Gilardi has been providing notice and claim administration services in securities class actions, Gilardi has found the majority of potential class members hold their securities in street name and are notified through the Nominal Holders. A copy of the letter dated July 8, 2016, sent to Nominal Holders in this case, is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

6. On July 8, 2016, Gilardi also mailed Settlement Notices and cover letters to the 4,851 institutions included on the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's list of active brokers and dealers.

7. As part of the notice program for this settlement, Gilardi caused the Settlement Notice to be published by the Depository Trust Company ("DTC") on the DTC Legal Notice System ("LENS"). LENS enables the participating bank and broker nominees to review the Settlement Notice and contact the Claims Administrator for copies of the Settlement Notice for their beneficial holders.

8. Gilardi has also acted as a repository for shareholder and nominee inquiries and communications received in this Action. In this regard, Gilardi has forwarded the Settlement Notice on request to nominees who held Household International, Inc. common stock for the beneficial interest of other persons. Gilardi has also forwarded the Settlement Notice directly to beneficial owners upon receipt of the names and addresses from such beneficial owners or nominees.

9. To date, in response to the outreach efforts described above, Gilardi has received seven responses that included computer files listing a total of 2,810 names and addresses of potential Class Members. Gilardi also received two responses that included mailing labels with names and addresses for mailing to an additional 168 potential Class Members. In addition, one institution requested that Gilardi send them one Settlement Notice, which they indicated they would mail directly to their client who might be a Class Member.

10. Settlement Notices which were returned as undeliverable mail were also reviewed to determine if an alternative or updated address was available from the Postal Service, and were then re-mailed to the updated or alternative address. In cases where no address was available from the Postal Service, Gilardi attempted to obtain updated or alternative address information from private databases and/or address locator services, and re-mailed the Claim Package if such information was available. To date, 27,891 Settlement Notices have been re-mailed to potential Class Members for whom a more recent address was identified.

11. As of the date of this declaration, Gilardi has mailed a total of 629,088 Settlement Notices to potential Class Members and nominees.

TELEPHONE HOTLINE AND WEBSITE

12. Gilardi established and continues to maintain a toll-free telephone number to accommodate potential Class Member inquiries. This toll-free number, 1-888-292-0360, became operational on January 6, 2011. Gilardi has promptly responded to, and will continue to promptly respond to, all inquiries to the toll-free number.

13. To further assist potential Class Members, Gilardi established and maintains a website dedicated to the Action (www.householdlitigation.com). Pursuant to the Order, on July 8, 2016, Gilardi posted to the website the Settlement Notice, List of Valid Claims, List of Rejected Claims, Stipulation of Settlement, and the Order which can be accessed and downloaded at any time.

PUBLICATION OF THE SUMMARY NOTICE

14. In accordance with the Order, Gilardi caused the Summary Notice to be published in Investor's Business Daily and transmitted over the PR Newswire on July 18, 2016, as shown in the Declarations of Publication attached hereto as Exhibit C.

REPORT ON OBJECTIONS RECEIVED TO DATE

15. In accordance with the Order and as set forth in the Settlement Notice, persons who wish to object to the proposed settlement are required to do so in writing so that the request is received no later than September 12, 2016. As of the date of this declaration, Gilardi has not received any objections.

ANALYSIS OF CALCULATED CLAIM DAMAGES

16. At Lead Counsel's request, Gilardi performed certain calculations with respect to the damages in this case. In December 2011, Gilardi filed a report with this Court that contained a list of claims that appeared to be valid. At that time, those claims were valued at $2,225,884,588. This amount was calculated using the daily per share damages, as determined by the jury, and by applying Judge Guzman's ruling with respect to the appropriate method of calculating damages. Thereafter, a number of claims were determined to be invalid based on subsequent court rulings and Lead Counsel's application of those rulings to claims as to which defendants lodged objections.

17. In July 2016, Lead Counsel asked Gilardi to apply Professor Fischel's two damage quantification calculations to the current list of claims that are eligible to participate in the recovery under the proposed settlement. Lead Counsel forwarded to Gilardi copies of Exhibit 25 to Professor Fischel's Second Supplemental Report. Gilardi staff programmed calculation software based on Fischel's quantifications and applied his daily per share damage numbers to the eligible claims.

18. Professor Fischel's Quantification Including Leakage, as reflected in Exhibit 25 and applied to eligible claims, would have resulted in total damages of approximately $2,093,807,983. Therefore, the $1,575,000,000 settlement would allow eligible Class Members to recover approximately 75% of their damages, had the jury adopted Professor Fischel's Quantification Including Leakage.

19. Professor Fischel's Specific Disclosure Model would have resulted in a damage award of approximately $624,285,676. Therefore, the $1,575,000,000 settlement would allow eligible Class Members to recover approximately 252% of their damages, had the jury adopted the Specific Disclosure Model to award damages.

20. Lead Counsel also asked Gilardi to apply defendants' expert's damages calculation to the eligible claims. We were asked to use the version of Dr. Ferrell's analysis that was most favorable to the Class. If the jury had adopted this analysis, as suggested by Dr. Ferrell, the damage award to Class Members would have been approximately $290,747,531. Therefore, the $1,575,000,000 settlement would allow eligible Class Members to recover approximately 541% of their damages, had the jury agreed with Dr. Ferrell's analysis.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct and that this declaration was executed this 22nd day of August, 2016, at San Rafael, California.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED SETTLEMENT OF CLASS ACTION

TO: ALL PERSONS WHO PURCHASED OR OTHERWISE ACQUIRED THE PUBLICLY TRADED COMMON STOCK OF HOUSEHOLD, INC. ("HOUSEHOLD") DURING THE PERIOD FROM OCTOBER 23, 1997 THROUGH OCTOBER 11, 2002, INCLUSIVE:

PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY AND IN ITS ENTIRETY. YOUR RIGHTS MAY BE AFFECTED BY PROCEEDINGS IN THIS LITIGATION. PLEASE NOTE THAT IF YOU ARE A CLASS MEMBER, YOU MAY BE ENTITLED TO SHARE IN THE PROCEEDS OF THE SETTLEMENT DESCRIBED IN THIS NOTICE. TO CLAIM YOUR SHARE OF THIS FUND, YOU WERE REQUIRED TO SUBMIT A VALID PROOF OF CLAIM FORM POSTMARKED IN 2011.

This Notice of Proposed Settlement of Class Action ("Notice") has been sent to you pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and an Order of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division (the "Court"). The purpose of this Notice is to inform you of the proposed settlement of cases that have been consolidated by the Court as Lawrence E. Jaffe Pension Plan v. Household Int'l, Inc., et al., No. 02-C-5893 (the "Litigation") and of the hearing (the "Settlement Hearing") to be held by the Court to consider the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of the settlement as set forth in the Stipulation of Settlement between Plaintiffs and Defendants, dated as of June 17, 2016 (the "Stipulation") on file with the Court.

This Notice is not intended to be, and should not be construed as, an expression of any opinion by the Court with respect to the truth of the allegations in the Litigation as to any of Defendants or the merits of the claims or defenses asserted by or against Defendants. This Notice is to advise you of the proposed settlement of the Litigation and of your rights in connection therewith.

I. STATEMENT OF PLAINTIFFS' RECOVERY

The proposed settlement will result in the creation of a cash settlement fund in the principal amount of One Billion Five Hundred Seventy-Five Million Dollars ($1,575,000,000.00), plus any interest that may accrue thereon (the "Settlement Fund").

The Settlement Fund, subject to deduction for, among other things, costs of class notice and administration and certain taxes and tax related expenses and for attorneys' fees and expenses as approved by the Court, will be available for distribution to Class Members who submitted valid Proof of Claim forms in 2011; answered the reliance question, as required, in 2011-2013; and responded to discovery propounded by Defendants in 2014 on claimants who responded "Yes" to the reliance question. Your recovery from this fund will depend on a number of variables, including the number of shares of Household common stock you purchased or otherwise acquired during the period from March 23, 2001 through October 11, 2002, inclusive, and the timing of your purchases and any sales. The estimated average distribution per damaged share of Household common stock will be approximately $7.25 before deduction of Court-approved fees and expenses.

II. STATEMENT OF POTENTIAL OUTCOME

Plaintiffs and Defendants do not agree on the average amount of damages per share, if any, that would have been recoverable if Plaintiffs were to have prevailed on each claim alleged. Defendants deny that they are liable in any respect or that Plaintiffs or the Class suffered any injury. The issues on which the parties disagree are many, but include: (1) whether Defendants engaged in conduct that would give rise to any liability to the Class under the federal securities laws, or any other laws; (2) whether Defendants have valid defenses to any such claims of liability; (3) the appropriate economic model for determining the amount by which the price of Household common stock was allegedly artificially inflated (if at all) during the Class Period; (4) the amount by which the price of Household common stock was allegedly artificially inflated (if at all) during the Class Period; (5) the effect of various market forces on the price of Household common stock at various times during the Class Period; (6) the extent to which external factors influenced the price of Household common stock at various times during the Class Period; (7) the extent to which the various matters that Plaintiffs alleged were materially false or misleading influenced (if at all) the prices of Household publicly traded securities at various times during the Class Period; and (8) the extent to which the various allegedly adverse material facts that Plaintiffs alleged were omitted influenced (if at all) the price of Household common stock at various times during the Class Period.

III. REASONS FOR SETTLEMENT

Plaintiffs believe that the proposed settlement is a good recovery and is in the best interests of the Class. Because of the risks associated with continuing to litigate and proceeding to trial, there was a danger that the Class would not have prevailed on any of its claims, in which case the Class would receive nothing. Also, the amount of damages recoverable by the Class was and is challenged by Defendants. Recoverable damages in this case are limited to losses caused by conduct actionable under applicable law and, had the Litigation gone to trial, Defendants would have asserted that any losses of Class Members were caused by non-actionable market, industry, or general economic factors. Defendants would have also asserted that throughout the Class Period the uncertainties and risks associated with the purchase of Household common stock were fully and adequately disclosed. The proposed settlement provides an immediate benefit to Class Members, and will avoid the years of delay that would likely occur in the event of a contested trial and appeals.

IV. STATEMENT OF ATTORNEYS' FEES AND EXPENSES SOUGHT

Plaintiffs' counsel have not received any payment for their services in conducting this Litigation on behalf of the Plaintiffs and the Members of the Class, nor have they been paid for their expenses. If the settlement is approved by the Court, Plaintiffs' counsel will apply to the Court for attorneys' fees of 24.68% of the Settlement Amount and expenses not to exceed $38,000,000, plus interest on both amounts, to be paid from the Settlement Fund. If the amount requested is approved by the Court, the average cost per damaged share of Household common stock will be approximately $1.96. In addition, each of the three Plaintiffs may seek up to $50,000 in expenses incurred in representing the Class.

V. IDENTIFICATION OF ATTORNEYS' REPRESENTATIVES

For further information regarding this settlement, you may contact a representative of Lead Counsel: Rick Nelson, Shareholder Relations, Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd LLP, 655 West Broadway, Suite 1900, San Diego, CA 92101, Telephone: 800/449-4900 or by e-mail to HouseholdClaims@rgrdlaw.com.

VI. NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

A hearing (the "Settlement Hearing") will be held on October 20, 2016, at 10:30 a.m., before the Honorable Jorge L. Alonso, United States District Judge, Courtroom 1219, United States District Court, Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division, Everett McKinley Dirksen United States Courthouse, 219 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, IL 60604. The purpose of the Settlement Hearing will be to determine: (1) whether the proposed settlement, as set forth in the Stipulation, consisting of One Billion Five Hundred Seventy-Five Million Dollars ($1,575,000,000.00) in cash should be approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate to the Members of the Class; (2) whether the proposed plan to distribute the settlement proceeds (the "Plan of Allocation") is fair, reasonable, and adequate; (3) whether the application by Plaintiffs' counsel for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses and the expenses of Plaintiffs should be approved; and (4) whether the Judgment, in the form attached to the Stipulation, should be entered. The Court may adjourn the Settlement Hearing from time to time and without further notice to the Class.

The Plaintiffs shall expressly waive and each of the Class Members shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Judgment shall have, expressly waived any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by any law of any state or territory of the United States, or principle of common law, which is similar, comparable or equivalent to California Civil Code §1542. Plaintiffs and Class Members may hereafter discover facts in addition to or different from those which he, she or it now knows or believes to be true with respect to the subject matter of the Released Claims, but Plaintiffs shall expressly settle and release and each Class Member, upon the Effective Date, shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Judgment shall have, fully, finally, and forever settled and released any and all Released Claims, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, contingent or non-contingent, whether or not concealed or hidden, which now exist, or heretofore have existed, upon any theory of law or equity now existing or coming into existence in the future, including, but not limited to, conduct which is negligent, intentional, with or without malice, or a breach of any duty, law or rule, without regard to the subsequent discovery or existence of such different or additional facts. Plaintiffs acknowledge, and the Class Members shall be deemed by operation of the Judgment to have acknowledged, that the foregoing waiver was separately bargained for and a key element of the settlement of which this release is a part.

VIII. THE LITIGATION

On August 19, 2002, Lawrence E. Jaffe Pension Plan initiated an action in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division, by complaint styled as Lawrence E. Jaffe Pension Plan v. Household International, Inc. et al., Lead Case No. 02-C-5893, alleging violations of the federal securities laws and naming as defendants Household, Chief Executive Officer William F. Aldinger, Chief Financial Officer David A. Schoenholz and outside auditor Arthur Anderson (the “Jaffe Complaint”). Dkt. No. 1. The Jaffe Complaint brought claims on behalf of all persons who purchased Household securities between October 23, 1997 and August 14, 2002. Thereafter, a number of similar, related, class action complaints were filed. In all, a total of 7 actions involving similar claims were filed. On December 9, 2002, these cases were consolidated by Court order. Dkt. No. 33. On December 18, 2002, the Court entered an order granting the Glickenhau Institutional Group’s motion for appointment as lead plaintiffs. Dkt. No. 38. Robbins Geller was appointed as lead counsel, and Miller Law as liaison counsel.

On March 13, 2003, Plaintiffs filed the Consolidated Complaint which included claims for violations of §§10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder and §§11, 12(a)(2) and 15 of the Securities Act of 1933 which added Defendant Gary Gilmer. The Consolidated Complaint asserted claims on behalf of all persons who purchased or otherwise acquired securities of Household during the period from October 23, 1997 to October 11, 2002. On May 13, 2003, Defendants moved to dismiss the Consolidated Complaint. On March 19, 2004, the Court entered an Order granting in part and denying in part Defendants’ motions to dismiss the Consolidated Complaint. Dkt. No. 135.

By order entered December 3, 2004, the Court certified a class (the “Class”) with the Class defined as follows: all Persons who purchased or otherwise acquired the securities of Household during the period between October 23, 1997 and October 11, 2002.

On June 30, 2005, the Household Defendants filed a motion to dismiss pursuant to the Seventh Circuit’s decision in Foss v. Bear, Stearns Co., 394 F.3d 540 (7th Cir. 2005). Dkt. No. 243. On February 28, 2006, following briefing on Defendants’ motion, the Court granted Defendants’ motion, dismissing Plaintiffs’ §10(b) claims that arose prior to July 30, 1999. Dkt. No. 434.

On August 16, 2005, the parties filed a Joint Motion and [Proposed] Order for Entry of Modification to Stipulation and Order Regarding Class Action Certification Entered December 3, 2004. Dkt. No. 277. Under the terms of the modified stipulation, the parties agreed that Defendants would waive their right to decertify in part the Class as set forth in the stipulation. The parties also requested that the Court direct that notice be sent to the class. On August 22, 2005, the Court entered an order approving the parties’ modification to the stipulation and order regarding class certification. Dkt. No. 287.

On June 16, 2005, Plaintiffs and Arthur Andersen reached a settlement, pursuant to which Arthur Andersen agreed to pay cash consideration of $1,500,000. On January 31, 2006, a notice was sent to Class Members informing them of the Arthur Andersen settlement, of the certification of the Class, and notifying Class Members of the right to be excluded from the litigation. On March 30, 2006, Lead Plaintiffs filed a motion for final approval of the settlement with Arthur Andersen. Dkt. No. 452. On April 6, 2006, the Court approved the settlement, entering final judgment and an order of dismissal with prejudice as to Arthur Andersen. Dkt. No. 485.

A six (6) week jury trial of the Litigation commenced on March 30, 2009 against Defendants Household, Aldinger, Schoenholz and Gilmer (the "Trial Defendants") on behalf of all purchasers of Household stock from July 30, 1999 through October 11, 2002. On May 7, 2009, the jury rendered a verdict in the case. The jury found that the Trial Defendants did not violate the federal securities laws for statements made during the time period of July 30, 1999 through March 22, 2001. Plaintiffs did not appeal this determination. For Class Members who purchased Household common stock during that time frame, there is no recovery. The jury found that the Trial Defendants did violate the federal securities laws for certain public statements regarding Household made in connection with purchases of Household common stock from March 23, 2001 through October 11, 2002. The jury also awarded per share damages for each trading day during this period.

On November 22, 2010, the Court entered an Order creating the protocol for Phase II of this case. Dkt. No. 1703. On January 10, 2011, the Court approved a Notice of Verdict to be sent to all persons who purchased or otherwise acquired the common stock of Household between October 23, 1997 and October 11, 2002. In light of the Court's rulings and the jury's verdict, only persons who purchased or otherwise acquired Household common stock between March 23, 2001 and October 11, 2002 were entitled to a recovery. After the submission of claims and the claims administration process was completed, the Claims Administrator filed reports with the Court on December 22, 2011 identifying potentially valid claims and claims that were rejected. Thereafter, the Court allowed defendants to object to any potentially valid claims. Defendants' objections were filed on February 27, 2012, and plaintiffs responded to these objections on March 28, 2012. The Court also required all class members to answer the "reliance question," which was set forth on page five (5) of the Proof of Claim form. Persons who failed to answer the reliance question, either in 2011 as part of the claims process or, thereafter, during a second opportunity provided by the Court in 2013, had their claims rejected.

On October 17, 2013, the Court entered a partial final judgment pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(b) in the amount of $1,476,490,844.21 plus prejudgment interest in the amount of $986,408,772.00, for a total amount of $2,462,899,616.21, along with post-judgment interest and taxable costs. Dkt. No. 1898.

Defendants filed a notice of appeal on October 17, 2013. The appeal was fully briefed on April 11, 2014. On appeal, defendants raised issues with respect to three elements: loss causation, the Court's instruction on what it means to "make" a false statement, and reliance. On May 21, 2015, the Court of Appeals reversed the judgment and remanded the case for a new trial on three issues: (1) loss causation; (2) damages; and (3) whether the three Individual Defendants "made" certain statements under the Supreme Court's decision in Janus Capital Group, Inc. v. First Derivative Traders, 131 S. Ct. 2296 (2011). In addition, the Court of Appeals held that the new jury would need to reapportion liability in light of the Janus issue described above. A new trial was scheduled to begin on June 6, 2016, before the Honorable Jorge L. Alonso.

On February 24, 2016, each of the Individual Defendants filed motions for partial summary judgment regarding whether they "made" certain of the statements at issue. Dkt. Nos. 2106, 2110, 2112. The parties subsequently reached a stipulation regarding which Individual Defendants "made" which statements, and the stipulation was submitted to the Court on March 16, 2016, together with a motion to withdraw the Individual Defendants' motions for partial summary judgment. Dkt. No. 2122. The Court granted that motion on March 17, 2016. Dkt. No. 2123.

The parties have engaged in mediation sessions in May 2005, May 2008, June 2011, June 2014; before this Court on August 22, 2005; and in the Seventh Circuit's mediation program in December 2013 and January 2014. At various times during the course of the Litigation, the parties engaged the services of Judge Layn R. Phillips (Ret.), a nationally recognized mediator. The parties engaged in numerous telephonic mediation sessions with Judge Phillips during 2016 regarding a potential settlement of the Litigation. On June 5, 2016, Judge Phillips issued a mediator's proposal to settle the Litigation for $1,575,000,000.00. The parties accepted Judge Phillips' mediator's proposal to settle the Litigation for that amount on June 6 subject to the negotiation of the terms of a Stipulation of Settlement and approval by the Court.

IX. CLAIMS OF PLAINTIFFS AND BENEFITS OF SETTLEMENT

Plaintiffs believe that the claims asserted in the Litigation have merit and that the evidence developed to date supports the claims. However, Plaintiffs and their counsel recognize and acknowledge the expense and length of continued proceedings necessary to prosecute the Litigation against Defendants through trial and through appeals. Plaintiffs and their counsel also have taken into account the uncertain outcome and the risk of any litigation, especially in complex actions such as the Litigation, as well as the difficulties and delays inherent in such litigation. Plaintiffs and their counsel also are mindful of the inherent problems of proof under and possible defenses to the securities law violations asserted in the Litigation. Plaintiffs and their counsel believe that the settlement set forth in the Stipulation confers substantial benefits upon the Class. Based on their evaluation, Plaintiffs and their counsel have determined that the settlement set forth in the Stipulation is in the best interests of Plaintiffs and the Class.

X. DEFENDANTS' DENIALS OF WRONGDOING AND LIABILITY

Defendants have denied and continue to deny each and all of the claims alleged by Plaintiffs in the Litigation. Defendants expressly have denied and continue to deny all charges of wrongdoing or liability against them arising out of any of the conduct, statements, acts or omissions alleged, or that could have been alleged, in the Litigation. Defendants also have denied and continue to deny, among other allegations, the allegations that the Plaintiffs or the Class have suffered any damage, that the price of Household common stock was artificially inflated by reasons of alleged misrepresentations, non-disclosures or otherwise, or that the Plaintiffs or the Class were harmed by the conduct alleged in the Complaint. Defendants believe that the evidence developed to date supports their position that they acted properly at all times and that the Litigation is without merit.

Nonetheless, Defendants have concluded that further conduct of the Litigation would be protracted and expensive, and that it is desirable that the Litigation be fully and finally settled in the manner and upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Stipulation. Defendants also have taken into account the uncertainty and risks inherent in any litigation, especially in complex cases such as the Litigation. Defendants have, therefore, determined that it is desirable and beneficial to them that the Litigation be settled in the manner and upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Stipulation.

XI. TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

A settlement has been reached in the Litigation between Plaintiffs and Defendants, the terms and conditions of which are set forth in the Stipulation and the Exhibits thereto. The following description of the proposed settlement is only a summary, and reference is made to the text of the Stipulation, on file with the Court or accessible at www.householdlitigation.com or www.householdfraud.com, for a full statement of its provisions.

The settlement consists of the aggregate principal amount of One Billion Five Hundred Seventy-Five Million Dollars ($1,575,000,000.00) in cash, plus any interest earned thereon.

A portion of the settlement proceeds will be used to pay attorneys' fees and expenses, Plaintiffs' expenses, the cost of this Notice and the costs incurred in processing of claims previously submitted by Class Members and to pay Taxes and Tax Expenses. The balance of the Settlement Fund (the "Net Settlement Fund") will be distributed, according to the Plan of Allocation described below, to Class Members who submitted valid Proof of Claim forms in 2011, answered the reliance question, as required, in 2011-2013; and responded to discovery propounded by Defendants in 2014 on claimants who responded "Yes" to the reliance question.

The effectiveness of the settlement is subject to a number of conditions and reference to the Stipulation is made for further particulars regarding these conditions.

XII. THE RIGHTS OF CLASS MEMBERS

If you are a Class Member, you may receive the benefit of, and you will be bound by the terms of, the proposed settlement described in this Notice, upon approval of the proposed settlement by the Court.

If you are a Class Member, the following decisions that you have already made during the pendency of the Litigation have affected your claim:

1. You were required to submit a Proof of Claim form as described in the Notice of Verdict dated January 11, 2011. If you filed a Proof of Claim form at that time, your claim was either accepted or rejected, as set forth in reports filed with the Court by the Claims Administrator on December 22, 2011. If your claim was not rejected, you will share in the proceeds of the proposed settlement if: you are entitled to a distribution under the Plan of Allocation described below; you submitted a valid Proof of Claim form in 2011; you answered the reliance question, as required, in 2011-2013; you responded to discovery propounded by Defendants in 2014 on claimants who responded "Yes" to the reliance question; and if the proposed settlement is finally approved by the Court. You will be bound by the Judgment and release to be entered by the Court as described below.

2. If you purchased or otherwise acquired Household common stock during the Class Period and you did not wish to be included in the Class, you were required to file a request for exclusion on or before

March 20, 2006. If you timely and validly requested exclusion from the Class: (a) you are excluded from the Class, (b) you will not share in the proceeds of the settlement described herein, (c) you are not bound by any judgment entered in the Litigation, and (d) you are not precluded, by reason of your decision to request exclusion from the Class, from otherwise prosecuting an individual claim, if timely, against Defendants based on the matters complained of in the Litigation.

3. If you did not make a valid and timely request in writing to be excluded from the Class in 2006, you will be bound by any and all determinations or judgments in the Litigation in connection with the settlement entered into or approved by the Court, whether favorable or unfavorable to the Class, and you shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Judgment shall have, fully released all of the Released Claims against the Released Persons, whether or not you submitted a valid Proof of Claim form.

4. You may not have filed a Proof of Claim form in 2011 or a request for exclusion in 2006. If you chose this option, you will not share in the proceeds of the settlement, but you will be bound by any judgment entered by the Court, and you shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Judgment shall have, fully released all of the Released Claims against the Released Persons.

5. You may object to the settlement, the Plan of Allocation, the application for attorneys' fees and expenses and/or any award of expenses to Plaintiffs in the manner described in Section XVIII below.

6. If you are a Class Member, you may, but are not required to, enter an appearance through counsel of your own choosing and at your own expense, provided that such counsel must file an appearance on your behalf on or before September 12, 2016, and must serve copies of such appearance on the attorneys listed in Section XVIII below. If you do not enter an appearance through counsel of your own choosing, you will be represented by Plaintiffs' Lead Counsel: Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd LLP, Michael J. Dowd, Spencer A. Burkholz, Daniel S. Drosman, Luke O. Brooks and Maureen E. Mueller, 655 West Broadway, Suite 1900, San Diego, CA 92101.

7. A list of valid claims, by claim number, is contained in both (1) a website maintained by Lead Counsel at www.householdfraud.com and (2) a website maintained at www.householdlitigation.com. These websites also contain lists, by claim number, of claims that have been rejected. You may obtain your claim number by e-mailing the Claims Administrator at classact@gilardi.com. You may also contact Lead Counsel with questions by e-mail at HouseholdClaims@rgrdlaw.com.

XIII. PLAN OF ALLOCATION

Class Members who filed valid claims are entitled to recover pursuant to the following Recognized Loss calculation which is based on the 2009 Jury Verdict:

1. For Household common stock that was purchased or acquired from March 23, 2001 through October 10, 2002, and:

(a) sold prior to November 15, 2001, the Recognized Loss is zero;

(b) sold from November 15, 2001 through October 10, 2002, the Recognized Loss per share is the difference between: (i) the inflation on the date of purchase as shown on Exhibit A less (ii) the inflation on the date of sale as shown on Exhibit A; and

(c) retained at the close of trading on October 10, 2002, the Recognized Loss per share is the inflation on the date of purchase as shown on Exhibit A.

2. For the purpose of calculating Recognized Loss using the formula above, the minimum inflation will be zero and not a negative number.

3. Any investor's aggregate Recoverable Loss shall be offset by any gains, or avoidance of loss, resulting from sales of Household shares from March 23, 2001 through October 10, 2002 at artificially inflated prices. These gains (if any) will be calculated as the difference between the inflation per share at the time of sale less the inflation per share at the time of purchase. Shares purchased prior to March 23, 2001 will have an inflation of zero at the time of purchase.

4. Recognized Loss will be limited by the so-called 90-Day "Bounce Back Rule" as required by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as follows:

(a) For Household shares sold prior to October 11, 2002 there will be no limitation of Recognized Loss by reason of the Bounce Back Rule;

(b) For Household shares sold on or from October 11, 2002 through and including January 8, 2003 (i.e., sold during the 90-Day Bounce Back Period), Recognized Loss shall be limited to a maximum of the purchase price per share less the average closing price of Household stock from October 11, 2002 through the date of sale; and

(c) For Household shares retained at the close of trading on January 8, 2003 (i.e., retained at the end of the 90-Day Bounce Back Period), Recognized Loss shall be limited to a maximum of the purchase price per share less the 90-Day average closing price from October 11, 2002 through January 8, 2003 of $27.05.

5. For purposes of calculating Recognized Loss, the Court has adopted the First-In, First-Out (“FIFO”) method.

Class Members do not have to perform any of the calculations described above. All of these calculations have been performed by the Claims Administrator based on the purchase and sale transaction information provided by Class Members on the Proof of Claim forms in 2011.

The amount of the Class’s total recovery will be reduced by such amounts as may be awarded by the Court to Plaintiffs’ Counsel for attorneys’ fees and the expenses of bringing and prosecuting the Litigation and to Plaintiffs for the reimbursement of certain of their expenses.

The Court shall retain continuing, exclusive jurisdiction to, among other things, allow, disallow, or adjust the claim of any Class Member on equitable grounds.

Payment pursuant to the Plan of Allocation set forth above shall be conclusive against all Authorized Claimants. No Person shall have any claim against the Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs’ counsel, any claims administrator, or other Person designated by Plaintiffs’ counsel, or Defendants or Defendants’ counsel based on distributions made substantially in accordance with the Stipulation and the settlement contained therein, the Plan of Allocation, or further orders of the Court. Class Members who did not purchase or otherwise acquire Household common stock between March 23, 2001 and October 11, 2002, inclusive, will not share in the recovery. Class Members who failed to submit a valid Proof of Claim form in 2011; failed to answer the reliance question, as required, in 2011-2013; or failed to respond to discovery propounded by Defendants in 2014 on claimants who responded “Yes” to the reliance question, will not share in the recovery. Class Members who withdrew their claims will also not share in the recovery. However, all such Class Members shall be bound by all of the terms of the Stipulation, including the terms of any judgment entered and the releases given.

Lists, by claim number, of (1) all claims entitled to share in the recovery and (2) all rejected claims will be maintained at www.householdlitigation.com and www.householdfraud.com.

XIV. PARTICIPATION IN THE SETTLEMENT

TO PARTICIPATE IN THE DISTRIBUTION OF THE NET SETTLEMENT FUND, YOU MUST HAVE COMPLETED AND RETURNED THE PROOF OF CLAIM FORM THAT ACCOMPANIED THE NOTICE OF VERDICT IN 2011. If you (1) did not submit a valid Proof of Claim form in 2011; (2) did not answer the reliance question, as required, in 2011-2013; (3) did not respond to discovery propounded by Defendants in 2014 on claimants who responded “Yes” to the reliance question; or (4) withdrew your claim, you will be bound by the provisions of the Stipulation and the Judgment, and will be barred from receiving any payments from the Net Settlement Fund, except as otherwise ordered by the Court with respect to Net Settlement Fund allocations.

XV. DISMISSAL AND RELEASES

If the proposed settlement is approved, the Court will enter a Final Judgment and Order of Dismissal with Prejudice (the “Judgment”). In addition, upon the Effective Date, Plaintiffs and each of the Class Members, for themselves and for each of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, employees, agents, spouses, subsidiaries, heirs at law, successors and assigns, and any other Person claiming (now or in the future) through or on behalf of them, and regardless of whether any such Plaintiff or Class Member ever seeks or obtains by any means, including, without limitation, by submitting a Proof of Claim form in 2011, any distribution from the Settlement Fund, shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Judgment shall have, fully, finally, and forever released, relinquished, and discharged all Released Claims against the Released Persons, shall have covenanted not to sue the Released Persons with respect to all such Released Claims, and shall be permanently barred and enjoined from instituting, commencing, or prosecuting any such Released Claim against the Released Persons except to enforce the releases and other terms and conditions contained in the Stipulation or the Judgment entered pursuant thereto.

XVI. APPLICATION FOR FEES AND EXPENSES

At the Settlement Hearing, Lead Counsel will request the Court to award attorneys' fees of 24.68% of the Settlement Amount, plus expenses not to exceed $38,000,000, plus interest on both amounts. In addition, each of the Plaintiffs may seek up to $50,000 in expenses (including lost wages) it incurred in representing the Class. Such sums as may be approved by the Court will be paid from the Settlement Fund. Class Members are not personally liable for any such fees or expenses.

To date, Plaintiffs' counsel have not received any payment for their services in conducting this Litigation on behalf of the Plaintiffs and the Class, nor have counsel been paid their expenses. The fee requested by Lead Counsel will compensate counsel for their efforts in achieving the Settlement Amount for the benefit of the Class, and for their risk in undertaking this representation on a wholly contingent basis. Lead Counsel believe that the fee requested is well within the range of fees awarded to plaintiffs' counsel under similar circumstances in other litigation of this type.

XVII. CONDITIONS FOR SETTLEMENT

The settlement is conditioned upon the occurrence of certain events described in the Stipulation. Those events include, among other things: (1) entry of the Judgment by the Court, as provided for in the Stipulation; and (2) expiration of the time to appeal from the Judgment or to move to alter or amend the Judgment, or the determination of any such appeal or motion in a manner to permit the consummation of the settlement substantially as provided for in the Stipulation. If, for any reason, any one of the conditions described in the Stipulation is not met, the Stipulation might be terminated and, if terminated, will become null and void, and the parties to the Stipulation will be restored to their respective positions as of June 5, 2016. In that event, the settlement will not proceed and no payments will be made to Class Members.

XVIII. THE RIGHT TO BE HEARD AT THE HEARING

Any Class Member who objects to any aspect of the settlement, the Plan of Allocation, or the application for attorneys' fees and expenses, and the reimbursement of certain expenses to Plaintiffs, may appear and be heard at the Settlement Hearing. Any such Person must submit a written notice of objection, such that it is received on or before September 12, 2016, by each of the following:
