STATEMENT

Defendants are ordered to produce to Plaintiffs immediately all state agency documents consistent with this court's November 16, 2006 Order. Plaintiffs, in turn, have confirmed that they will produce to Defendants copies of any documents they receive from state agencies.

Plaintiffs will file, if necessary, a motion regarding the Andrew Kahr deposition by 12/4/06 at 5:00pm CST. Defendants to respond by 12/7/06 at 5:00pm CST.

The parties will meet and confer regarding inadvertently produced documents Defendants claim are privileged. The court understands this includes no more than 25 documents. Plaintiffs may then file by 12/6/06 at 5:00pm CST a motion as to any documents that remain in dispute. Defendants to respond by 12/13/06, and Plaintiffs to reply by 12/19/06, both by 5:00pm CST. The parties will each appoint an individual who will be responsible for working on the "slip sheet" issue to resolve which documents really do not appear on Defendants' privilege logs. These individuals will be prepared to report to this court on their progress at the next status hearing, scheduled for 12/15/06 at 7:30am CST.

The court expects both parties to provide full and complete responses to contention interrogatories and neither party should require further court intervention on this matter. Parties are also expected to comply with any other orders or instructions as stated in open court.
